Internet Sites

The sites below relate to the heritage and cultural assets of the world and their conservation and management. Browsing through these web sites will give an idea of activities happening in the world and how these could benefit South Africa. Many of the sites have documents (that can be downloaded or printed) that would be useful in the South African context.

UNESCO has a 'Culture' division which focuses specifically on the preservation of cultural heritage. There is also a list of 'cultural heritage' publications on the site.

URL: www.unesco.org/culture

The WHC (World Heritage Council under the auspices of UNESCO) has recently turned its attention to Africa and its cultural heritage.

URL: www.unesco.org/whc

ICOMOS (International Council of Monuments and Sites).

URL: www.icomos.org

ICOM (International Council of Museums).

URL: www.icom.org

IUCN (The World Conservation Union)

URL: www.iucn.org

ICCROM (The International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property)

URL: www.iccrom.org

WCMC (World Conservation Monitoring Centre)

URL: www.wcmc.org.uk

WHIN (World Heritage Information Network)

URL: www.wcmc.org.uk/whin

Robert Gordon University. This site has a section related specifically to heritage conservation and further links, some of which are useful.

URL: www.rgu.ac.uk/schools/mcrg/stinfo.htm

The Australian Heritage Council : Guidelines for Heritage Advisory Services:

www.environment.gov.au/heritage/publications/has\_standards/chapter4/chapter4.html

Also useful are internet sites which focus on ecological conservation and ecotourism since many of the principles followed in this area can be applied to heritage and cultural tourism particularly with regard to 'natural' heritage sites.

TES (The Ecotourism Society) is a good internet site. In addition, the organisation has a library of books and documents relating to 'sustainable' tourism. This is a useful reference list of publications available on the subject.

TES URL: www.ecotourism.org

TES Library URL: www.ecotourism.org/gwulib.html Follow the directions on this page to obtain lists of documents relating to 'sustainable' tourism. Entering the word/s "ecotourism" and "tourism heritage sites" (Keyword Anywhere option) will produce lists of publications specifically on these subjects. Clicking on any one of the titles will provide information of the contents of the publication, name of publisher and an ISBN.

WTTC (World Travel and Tourism Council) have a site specifically focused on ecological matters; ECoNETT. Much of the material on this site could be applied to heritage and cultural tourism.
