

ANNEXURE 10Analysis of the specified GHS labelling elements and the current labelling of agricultural and stock remedies

GHS Requirements		NDA and AVCASA Guidelines		GHS Compliance
Acute Toxicity	Label		Label
Category 1 (Cut-off values currently used primarily by the transport sector for classification for packing groups)	Symbol - Skull and crossbones Signal Word - Danger Hazard Statement: Oral – Fatal if swallowed Dermal – Fatal in contact with skin Inhalation – Fatal if inhaled	Group Ia Extremely hazardous	Symbol – Skull and crossbones Hazard statement – Very toxic Colour band - Red	The use of colour bands acceptable in GHS Not compliant with regard to the signal word and hazard statement
Category 2	Symbol - Skull and crossbones Signal Word – Danger Hazard Statement: Oral – Fatal if swallowed Dermal – Fatal in contact with skin Inhalation – Fatal if inhaled	Group Ib Highly hazardous	Symbol – Skull and crossbones Hazard statement – Toxic Colour band - Red	The use of colour bands acceptable in GHS Not compliant with regard to the signal word and hazard statement
Category 3	Symbol - Skull and crossbones Signal Word - Danger Hazard Statement: Oral – Toxic if swallowed Dermal – Toxic in contact with skin	Group II Moderately hazardous	Symbol – St. Andrews Cross Hazard statement – Harmful Colour band - Yellow	The use of colour bands acceptable in GHS Not compliant with regard to the symbol, signal word and hazard statement

GHS Requirements		NDA and AVCASA Guidelines		GHS Compliance
Acute Toxicity	Label		Label
	Inhalation – Toxic if inhaled
Category 4	Symbol - Exclamation mark Signal Word - Warning Hazard Statement: Oral – Harmful if swallowed Dermal – Harmful in contact with skin Inhalation – Harmful if inhaled	Group III Slightly hazardous	Symbol – No symbol Hazard statement – Caution Colour band - Blue	The use of colour bands acceptable in GHS Not compliant with regard to the symbol, signal word and hazard statement
Category 5	Symbol - No symbol used Signal Word - Warning Hazard Statement: Oral – May be harmful if swallowed Dermal – May be harmful in contact with skin Inhalation – May be harmful if inhaled	Group IV Acute hazard unlikely in normal use	Symbol – No symbol used Hazard statement – No hazard statement Colour band - Green	The use of colour bands acceptable in GHS Not compliant with regard to the symbol, signal word and hazard statement